

International Spy Museum

800 F Street, N.W.

Between 9th and 8th Streets

Northwest Washington, D.C.

Metro Stop: Gallery Place-Chinatown

The International Spy Museum is a privately owned and operated museum featuring a large collection of international spy-related artifacts. The stories of individual spies are told through film, interactives, and state-of-the-art exhibits.

Trace the history of espionage from biblical times to the present day. Exhibits feature stories of real spies – their missions, their fates, and how their espionage affected some of the most pivotal moments in world history.

Times of Operation

The museum is open daily, except New Year's Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and on occasion, the museum closes for private events earlier than regular visiting hours. Opening hours vary from 9:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. and closing hours vary from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., depending on the year's schedule set by the museum. For the most up-to-date opening and closing time information and when last admission is, visit their website or call their 24-hour info line at (866) 779-6873 or (202) 393-7798 (TTY: 202-654-0977).

Admission rates apply, except for children under 5 years.

International Spy Museum Links

- International Spy Museum Website
- Accessibility Information
- Hours and Last Admission □
- Group Information

Places of Interest Nearby

- National Portrait Gallery
- National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial

Return to Tours and Tickets